

Leanne Gugenheimer

Executive Director
Touchmark at Wedgewood

As executive director, Leanne oversees all aspects of this resort-style retirement community, including 66 bungalows, a health services neighbourhood, and a 115-suite complex.

Before joining Touchmark in fall 2006, Leanne worked at the Ashbourne, an assisted living community in Edmonton, and for the Canterbury Foundation, which encompasses Canterbury

Manor, Canterbury Court, and Canterbury Lane as well as Extendicare Canada. Her background includes working with older adults in various communities and settings; overseeing and directing building and staff operations; communicating with staff, clients, the public, and board members; and performing administrative duties.

Born and raised in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Leanne graduated from the University of Manitoba. She has volunteered with The Terry Fox Foundation and the Alberta Foundation for Diabetes Research, participated in the Running Room 10K Clinic and Run for the Cure for Cancer, and helped implement The Family and Community Advisory Council at Extendicare. Some of Leanne's favorite pastimes include gardening, reading, running, cooking, and spending time with family.
